

BAILEY PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

39 BOWDOIN ST. WINTHROP, ME
WWW.BAILEYLIBRARY.ORG
207-377-8673 | TEXT: 207-370-1071

UPCOMING EVENTS

Tuesday, July 5

Russia Craft 3pm
Kids Movie Night GNOMEO AND JULIET 5pm

Wednesday, July 6

Story Time 10:15am
Mr. Harley Music Time 10:30am
Lego Fun 3:30pm
Bailey Yoga Night 6pm

Tuesday, July 12

Latin Craft 3:30pm
Susan Conley Author Program 6:30pm

Wednesday, July 13

Story Time 10:15am
Lego Fun 3:30pm

Friday, July 15

Maine Authors Tea Party 1-3pm
(Call Library to register)

Tuesday, July 19

Chewonki Fur, Feathers & Feet 1pm

Wednesday, July 20

Story Time 10:15am
Mr. Harley Music Time 10:30am
Lego Fun 3:30pm
Bailey Title Waves 6pm

Friday, July 22

Eragon Night 6-8pm

Tuesday, July 26

Sweden Craft 3pm
Movie Night for Adults THE ADJUST-
MENT BUREAU 5:30pm

Wednesday, July 27

Story Time 10:15am
Lego Fun 3:30pm

NEW PROGRAMMING

• Don't forget about our new ongoing programs: Yoga Night held on the first Wednesday of each month, Kids Movie Night on the first Tuesday of each month, and Movie Night for Adults on the last Tuesday of each month!

Career assistance when we need it most

Americans turn to libraries when searching for new jobs. Both public libraries and One-stop Career Centers provide career counseling resources, resume assistance and help in filling out online applications.

Sources: ALA, 2010, "A Perfect Storm Brewing"; U.S. Department of Labor, www.servicelocator.org/.

FEATURED EVENT:

Susan Conley | July 12 @ 6:30pm

WEE READ

Reviews for the young and the young at heart. by Ann Darby

The Tree That Time Built
A Celebration of Nature, Science, and Imagination
By Mary Ann Hoberman, Linda Winston and Barbara Fortin

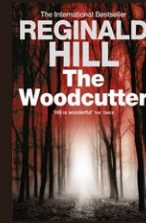

Beginning with our prehistory and going forward to today, a combination of the rhythm of poetry and the natural rhythm of the world, that is the wonder of this collection. Frequent commentary between the poems helps us to understand the harmony of poetry and science, the environment and our place in it. The termite, the potato, dandelions and dinosaurs are just a few of the subjects honored here.

Entertaining, educational, fun to read and learn.

NOTABLE BOOKS COMING IN JULY

Inverted Forest
John Dalton

The Woodcutter
Reginald Hill

Last Werewolf
Glen Duncan

Turn of Mind
Alice LaPlante

...from the desk of Shane-Malcolm Billings

Two Nearly Perfect Novels

Beloved by Toni Morrison

Beloved won the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction, and although it's not my favorite Morrison novel (that would be Sula), it's certainly her masterpiece as well as one of the most important literary works of all time. Morrison's prose is exquisite, which makes reading her books pure joy. If she was simply writing nonsense, the pleasure would still be all ours. However, she weaves spellbinding plots and develops unforgettable characters, so really, there is nothing to criticize. Beloved is powerful, and it's definitely the darkest of her novels, a tale that makes the abomination of slavery crystal clear by focusing on its victims. The brutal sacrifice that one victim makes to free her child from slavery's grip will devastate and enlighten the reader. Deserving of every honor heaped upon it

Atonement by Ian McEwan

With Atonement, Ian McEwan crafted a story so riveting, well-plotted, and ultimately surprising that the book deserves multiple rereads to grasp the full effect. Briony Tallis is one of the most annoying characters I've ever encountered, based on her actions, but she is one of the most well-developed, interesting, and somehow authentic as well. She is bound to elicit some kind of strong response, whether hatred or sympathy. The words employed in this masterpiece are perfect; the language is strikingly beautiful without weighing things down. The middle passages of the book, which go into detail about Robbie's years in the war and Briony's stint as a nurse (part of her penance or atonement), never drag. The ending is one of the best and most unexpected I've ever read, and I cannot recommend this book highly enough.

JULY DVDS TO WATCH FOR

The Lincoln Lawyer
w/ Matthew McConaughey

Rango
w/ Johnny Depp

Source Code
w/ Jake Gyllenhaal