FEATURED EVENT:

Kate Braestrup
March 13 @ 6:30pm

The Bailey Library's Lakes Region Lecture Series welcomes award-winning author and writer Kate Braestrup, to speak on Tuesday, March 13 at 6:30pm in the Reading Room of the Bailey Public Library in Winthrop. The event is free and open to the public.

Braestrup is the author of Here If You Need Me, an award-winning New York Times best seller; Marriage and Other Acts of Charity; and Beginner's Grace.

Kate Braestrup is one of the first chaplains ever appointed to the Maine Warden Service. She also is an ordained Unitarian Universalist minister, regularly performing weddings throughout Maine. In 2010, she received an honorary doctoral degree from Unity College. She has appeared and was interviewed by National Public Radio, the Hallmark Channel, and other media locally and nationwide.

Braestrup's fiction and non-fiction work has appeared in Law and Order, the New York Times, the Sunday New York Times Magazine, Boston Globe Sunday Magazine, Downeast, O magazine, Good Housekeeping, Hope, among other publications.

Braestrup and husband, Simon van der Ven, and their six children reside in Maine.

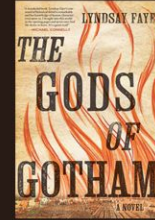

Copies of Braestrup's books will be available for purchase and signing at the event through Apple Valley Books. The free discussion will begin at 6:30pm. For more information, call 377-8673.

Take two!

by Richard Fortin

It's 2012 Oscar time, and to do something a little different, I made a list of what I feel are glaring shutouts and organized them into categories where they could have (eh, should have) been nominated. We have all of these films at the library, so place your hold today!
